BOB

BAZLEY, ROBERT W., GENERAL, USAF (RET.)

General Bazley received his navigator wings and was commissioned an Army Air Forces second lieutenant in March 1945. The end of World War II coincided with his completion of B-29 combat crew training and he was released from active duty in February 1946. He enrolled in the University of Pittsburgh, receiving a B.S. in business administration in 1949. He was recalled to active duty in 1951 for the Korean War and flew 50 combat missions as a RB-26 navigator. He completed pilot training in 1954 and went to Fighter Weapons School. During the next 14 years he held operational assignments in England, served as a recruiter in Pittsburgh, instructed at the Air Force Academy, and attended the Industrial College of the Armed Forces. In 1968 he became Commander of the 531st Tactical Fighter Squadron, Bien Hoa AB, Vietnam, and flew 257 F-100 combat missions. From 1969 to 1972 he served in operations in Washington. Next he commanded Randolph AFB, Texas; the 38th Flying Training Wing, Laredo AFB, Texas; and the 323rd Flying Training Wing, Mather AFB, California. In 1975 he was Inspector General of U.S. Air Forces in Europe (USAFE), Ramstein AB, Germany, and he became the Command's Assistant for Readiness in 1976. He then commanded the AF Training Center, Sheppard AFB, Texas and 3rd Air Force, RAF Mildenhall, England, through 1981. General Bazley was Vice Commander, USAFE until 1983 when he became the Air Force Inspector General in Washington. He assumed command of Pacific Air Forces, Hickam AFB, Hawaii and was promoted to general in 1984. He retired from active duty on 31 December 1986.
